

Cameraman- audio visual technician

Description:

The audio-visual technician is responsible for the technical aspect in a given video shoot. He realizes, produces, mounts local access broadcasts for the population. We are looking for creative, determined and passionate people. If you like challenges, meet people and feel like you're making a difference in the community, this type of job is for you.

Tâches:

- Maintains video equipment and station accessories
- Assist the broadcasting of programs through the broadcasting system
- Filming programs or events in the region
- Assist in the emissions concepts already in place
- Set up programs in partnership with other technicians
- Determine with the direction of equipment and programming needs that can help the station
- Other functions can be added according to the strengths of each